Miss Wimperis says....

Thank you to all the parents who attended parents meetings this week! It was wonderful to share the superb start that all the children have had to the new academic year. We thank you for your continued support.

After the half term, our Eco-Council will be starting the 'Cut the Carbon' challenge!

What's been happening this week?

As part of their topic, World War 2, Year 6 visited the Imperial War Museum. They had a wonderful time studying the artefacts.
